GOVERNMENT OF INDIA Department of Commerce.

ENEMY TRADING.

New Delhi, the 11th November 1944.

No. 120 (1) E. T. (B)/44—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of the proviso to sub-rule (1) of Rule 98 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to permit, subject to the reservations hereinafter mentioned, persons and concerns in British India to have correspondence with persons and concerns in liberated Italy.

2. Private trade, despatch of powers of attorney and proxies, and correspondence relating to Italian-owned property in India will continue to be subject to the said rule and require the special permission of the Central Government.

Y. N. SUKTHANKAR, Joint Secy.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

[BUSINESS CORRESPONDENCE WITH LIBERATED ITALY.

In accordance with similar action taken by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government of the United States of America, the Government of India have authorised persons and concerns in British India to have commercial, financial and other correspondence with liberated Italy, subject to such conditions as are specified below.

Banks and other Financial institutions may now reply to requests for information from the depositors in liberated Italy, but remittances between British India and liberated Italy, unless specifically authorised are not permissible. Documents such as birth, death and marriage certificates may also be transmitted. There is also no objection to Indian and Italian firms exchanging business information with a view to the future resumption of business relationship. It should, however, be clearly understood that the resumption of private trade is not yet permissible and that the despatch of powers of attorney and proxies to Italy will be permissible, subject to the prior permission of the Government of India in the Commerce Department.

Italian-owned property in India will continue to be governed by the Defence of India Rules and to be under the general control of the Custodian of Enemy property, Bombay. British subjects resident in Italy, who desire to obtain a release of their property in India should apply to the nearest British Consul.

Arrangements have also been made for the release in Italy of property (immovable or otherwise) owned by British subjects to its original owner or his authorised agent. Prima facie evidences of ownership should be supplied but original documents of title should not be forwarded, unless specifically requested. Applications and enquiries in this regard should be addressed by persons in Italy to the nearest British Consul and by persons in India to the Government of India in the Department of Commerce, Simla.

Correspondence for Italy can be despatched to the liberated Provinces of Italy and under the conditions notified in the postal notices and press communiques issued, from time to time, by the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department. Inquiries in this connection, may be made at any Post Office.
